MM and I got called to Mal's office last night to discuss this resurrected project (thanks to the BOS in Charlottesville) and the "EXPEDITED" schedule the Secretary's Office has put on it. Mal said that Rick had asked you to talk to FHWA to see what requirements we had on this thing due to its age. Your voice mail said you are out today and in tomorrow. If you get a chance give me a ring because I don't want to start doing anything for Mal that will get me in trouble with the document evaluation.

If you are on vacation today, don't call me until tomorrow.
